

Prescription Opioids/Opiate Investigations and Overdose Response

Presented by the
Drug Enforcement Administration
Miami Field Division, South East Laboratory

United States Attorney's Office
Middle District of Florida

In partnership with the North Florida HIDTA
and
St. Petersburg College Center for Public Safety Innovation

Wednesday, April 19, 2018
8:00 am to 5:00 pm

North Florida HIDTA
8647 Baypine Road, Suite 300
Jacksonville, FL

Registration Link:

http://cpsireg.spcollege.edu/oq_register.aspx?23180

Limited seating available. Deadline to register is April 1, 2018.

This class is for sworn law enforcement, evidence technicians and medical first responders only.

Course Summary:

This course is designed to meet the immediate training needs of any law enforcement officer, evidence technician, or other first responder personnel who respond to or investigate drug overdose deaths. It is intended as a basic safety familiarization related to opioids/opiates enforcement encounters.

Certification:

Certificates of participation will be presented to those that attend the entire course.

Description:

Topics covered during this eight-hour period of instruction will include:

- ◆ Trafficking trends and drug identification related to opioids/opiates; fentanyl and carfentanyl
- ◆ Trafficking trends and drug identification related to opioids/opiates; fentanyl and carfentanyl
Alexandra Gongora, Senior Forensic Chemist/Quality Assurance Specialist - DEA South East Laboratory
- ◆ Prescription Drug Investigations and the Role of the DEA Tactical Diversion Squad
Special Agent John Goodrich, DEA Miami Field Division
- ◆ DEA Clandestine Laboratory Team Response to opioids/opiates enforcement operations
Special Agents Kyle Keenan, DEA Miami Field Division Clandestine Laboratory Coordinator/Paramedic
- ◆ Dark Web/Bitcoin Investigations
Special Agent Chuck Noonan, DEA Miami Field Division
- ◆ Agent/Officer Safety related to opioid/opiate handling
Kyle Keenan, DEA Miami Field Division
- ◆ Hazards during Enforcement Operations and other encounters
Kyle Keenan, DEA Miami Field Division

This class is for sworn law enforcement officers, evidence technicians, and medical first responders.

To register for this training please visit:

http://cpsireg.spcollege.edu/oq_register.aspx?23180

Questions?

Please contact Community Outreach Specialist Khalilah Escalera
Phone: 813-274-6151 or Khalilah.escalera@usdoj.gov